

Marietta Teacher Pathway Program

What is the Marietta Teacher Pathway?

The Marietta Teacher Pathway is a program intended to try to help the school districts in Washington County, Ohio identify their best and brightest young people who may be interested in careers in Education and provide them with a start to their path to become a professional educator. The rural nature of our county makes it challenging to recruit talented teachers in all content and developmental levels. This program will allow local students to begin their journey to becoming a teacher close to home in hopes that upon graduation they will remain in our region.

What are the Benefits of Participating in the Marietta Teacher Pathway?

Becoming a member of the Marietta Teacher Pathway program has a number of benefits:

- You will have an opportunity to take up to 5 classes in your junior and senior years that will transfer into an Ohio college or university and further your work to become a teacher. These courses will be taught in a number of different models by Marietta College through a variety of modalities, including face to face summer classes (EDUC 110), online courses (EDUC 202, 253, and PSYC 101), and night classes (EDUC 130). There is a chart below that will indicate the order of the classes for the first cohort.
- Coursework that requires you to engage in field experiences with younger students so that you can make sure that a profession as a teacher is right for you.
- Textbooks that are paid for by our grant funds.
- Participation in the Educators Rising area chapter events. The chapter will be traveling to the state conference for Educators Rising this year...and there is a grant that will pay for it!
- Opportunities to interact with college students to ease your own future transition into a college setting. You will be assigned a student mentor who will show you the campus, answer questions, and even meet with you to attend college activities and events.

- A chance to work closely with one or more Marietta College Education faculty. One of these faculty members will serve as your academic advisor for your work on the Pathway program.

What is my Path?

As mentioned above you will have opportunities to take the following classes. The proposed order of the courses is included below as well. Please note that you are not eligible to take PSYC 101 until you have successfully completed EDUC 110.

Activities	Junior Year			Senior Year
	Summer	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring
Educ 110 with field experience (on campus)	X
Educ 202 (online/blended)		X
